Objective

Statutory objective of the organisation. What does the organisation seek to achieve?

Re:wild's mission is to protect and restore the wild to build a thriving Earth where all life can flourish.

Outline of the policy plan

Please answer the questions below or fill in the URL to the policy plan after the last question about the policy plan.

This online policy plan should at least provide answers to the questions about the policy plan asked here

What are the institution's activities? When are which activities to be carried out? And how do the activities contribute to achieving the organisation's objective?

Objectives

1. Protect and restore the world's most irreplaceable places
2. Conserve and recover the world's most threatened species
3. Help embolden and equip the world's conservation guardians
4. Build a global movement to catalyze action at scale

Re:wild publishes an annual Impact Report which demonstrates its progress against these and other goals and provides on-the-ground examples of our impact. Re:wild's annual impact reports can be found at: <https://www.rewild.org/financials>

How does the organisation generate income or revenue?

Re:wild is a non-profit corporation. Re:wild solicits charitable donations and grants from individuals, foundations and corporations. It also applies for grants from governments, bi-lateral and multi-lateral institutions.

General (continued)

How and for what purposes are the revenues spent?
If your organisation holds capital, please fill in here where and how this capital is held (e.g. savings account, investments, etc.)

Re:wild's assets are managed under the auspices of our Board of Directors who have a fiduciary responsibility to steward the assets of the organization. The Board of Directors have approved short-term and long-term investment policies that establish prudent guidelines for the investment of Re:wild's cash assets to generate a reasonable return on investment while protecting the principal base made up of its charitable net assets.

Remuneration policy
 Remuneration policy for the statutory board, for the members of the policy-making body and for staff (e.g. collective labour agreement or salary scheme).

Re:wild is overseen by a fully volunteer board of directors that receives no compensation. A list of Re:wild's current board of directors can be found here:
<https://www.rewild.org/board>.

Re:wild's board is responsible for establishing the remuneration of Re:wild's executives. Those executives have been delegated the responsibility for establishing the remuneration of Re:wild's staff. Re:wild strives to establish a fair and competitive salary structure that attracts the highest levels of talent, while also reflecting a responsible approach to the stewardship of the funding provided by our donors and supporters.

Activity Report
List the activities that have been carried out. Alternatively, under the next question, enter the URL to the activity report, or to the financial statements if they clearly describe the activities of the financial year in question.
